SANTA CLARA, CALIFORNIA

ABOUT

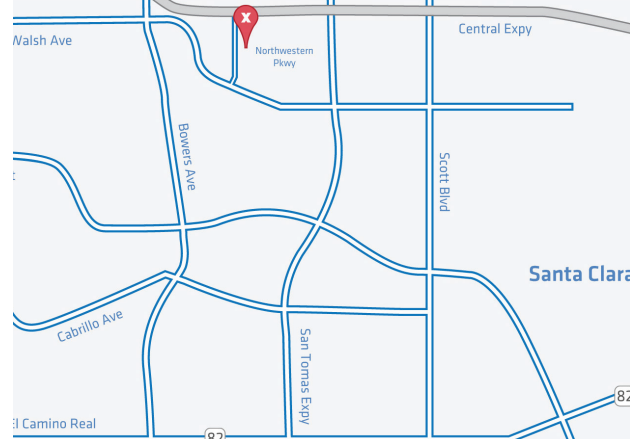

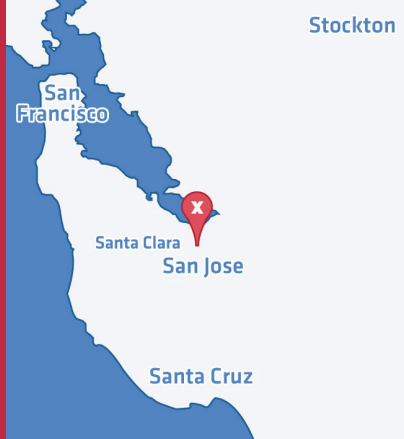

SCL2 offers premium colocation and interconnection services within the “green” designed Vantage data center campus in Santa Clara, California. Digital Realty is also the interconnection center operator for the campus, offering customers direct connections to each other, as well as to hundreds of the world’s leading carriers, ISP’s, cloud service and content providers.

By leveraging Digital Realty’s Metro Connect solution, customers at this location can directly access the wide range of services provided by Digital Realty customers located at Digital Realty’s SCL1 and SFR1 locations. This facility also provides access to Digital Realty’s multiple peering exchanges.
